SPAA honors 100 years of Black History and continued advocacy to serve black students and black communities, especially here at ECC, this campus’s history rests on the shoulders of those continued education employees and civil rights leaders who stood on the ECC theatre to fight for fair and equitable education, not only for black students, but for all, in the words of the late Reverend Jesse Jackson, who spoke in our ECC theatre in 1987, if my mind can conceive it and my heart can believe it, I know I can achieve it.

(Weinroth) Participated yesterday in the Accessibility Assessment Interviews through the Chancellor's Office, with others from CE. The purpose of the meeting was to highlight the opportunities. It's important to note that the credit colleges have so much support when it comes to accessibility, and we don't. (Omae) I will bring this to the Curriculum meeting for discussion.

(King) There is a call out for the recommendation to name the new Mid-City campus; while the Board will ultimately make the final decision on the name (per ed code). We had the ICE Protocols and Q&A at Mid-City yesterday. Thank you to those that were able to join. We had about 60 individuals show up w/ General Counsel Ljubisa Kostic and he was able to address about 17 questions. Chris Radomski was able to record it, and we will create an FAQ for those who were not able to attend, and we will send that information out and it will live on the Admin Serv. webpage.

(Lopez) A.L.I.C.E. training on Friday at the Cesar Chavez campus, there are still spots open.
